

Course Description

ART2501C | Painting 2 | 3.00 – 4.00 credits

Advanced techniques in painting. Prerequisite: ART2500C.

Course Competencies:

Competency 1: The student will conceptual integration of advanced painting techniques by:

1. Integrating advanced painting techniques into the conceptual framework of artwork, employing a nuanced understanding of materiality, process, and visual language to communicate complex ideas and thematic explorations
2. Investigating the intersection of technique and concept, utilizing advanced painting methods to convey emotional depth, narrative complexity, and conceptual resonance in artwork creation
3. Fostering a symbiotic relationship between advanced painting techniques and conceptual development, resulting in artwork that reflects a harmonious integration of technical prowess and thematic significance

Competency 2: The student will innovate and experiment in advanced painting by:

1. Exploring the conceptual implications of advanced painting techniques, utilizing impasto, glazing, and scumbling to convey emotive and narrative depth within the visual language of paintings
2. Exploring wet-on-wet and mixed-media applications to experiment with the fusion of materials and processes, facilitating the communication of complex ideas and thematic explorations through the painting medium
3. Integrating advanced paint handling, brushwork, and surface manipulation techniques to articulate conceptual themes and narrative complexities, fostering a cohesive integration of technique and concept in artwork

Competency 3: The student will mastery of advanced painting techniques by:

1. Pushing artistic boundaries through the experimental use of advanced painting techniques, fostering a spirit of innovation and creative exploration in the creation of artwork
2. Exploring unconventional approaches and interdisciplinary influences to expand the expressive potential of advanced painting techniques, fostering artistic breakthroughs and originality in artwork
3. Embracing artistic risk-taking and creative experimentation to develop a distinct artistic voice, fostering a sense of artistic freedom and exploration through the bold, innovative application of advanced painting techniques

Learning Outcomes:

- Communicate effectively using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
- Use computer and emerging technologies effectively
- Demonstrate an appreciation for aesthetics and creative activities