

Course Description

IND2330 | Interior Design Presentations 2 | 3.00 credits

This course emphasizes perfecting watercolor, casein and reproducible drawing techniques through the presentation of interior plans, elevations and perspectives. Projects also provide experience in assembling collages. Prerequisite: IND1300; Corequisite: IND2210

Course Competencies

Competency 1: The student will master watercolor techniques by:

1. Practicing various brush strokes to achieve different textures and effects
2. Experimenting with color mixing to create a diverse palette for interior presentations
3. Analyzing the impact of light and shadow in watercolor applications on interior designs

Competency 2: The student will refine casein painting skills by:

1. Exploring the properties and applications of casein as a medium for interior renderings
2. Developing layering techniques to enhance depth and dimension in artwork
3. Evaluating the differences between casein and other painting mediums in terms of finish and application

Competency 3: The student will enhance reproducible drawing techniques by:

1. Implementing technical drawing methods for creating accurate interior plans and elevations
2. Practicing drafting skills to ensure precision in dimensions and proportions
3. Reviewing and critiquing peer drawings to identify areas for improvement and innovation

Competency 2: The student will create collages as a form of visual expression by:

1. Assembling various materials and textures to develop thematic presentations
2. Integrating different media, such as watercolor and drawing, into cohesive collage compositions
3. Presenting completed collages to demonstrate design concepts and narrative storytelling in interior design

Learning Outcomes

- Communicate effectively using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
- Solve problems using critical and creative thinking and scientific reasoning
- Formulate strategies to locate, evaluate, and apply information
- Demonstrate an appreciation for aesthetics and creative activities
