

Course Description

TPP2256 | Music Theatre 2 | 3.00 Credits

A continuation of TPP1250 in which the student is expected to develop further the performing skills of singing, dancing, and acting.

Course Competencies:

Competency 1: The student will master advanced vocal techniques, including dynamic control, vocal stamina, interpretation of musical phrasing, and stylistic versatility by:

1. Enabling students to deliver nuanced and emotionally resonant performances across a diverse range of musical genres.

Competency 2: The student will analyze and deconstruct complex characters within musical theatre repertoire, employing advanced by:

1. Acting techniques, subtextual exploration, and character arc development to create multi-dimensional and compelling portrayals on stage.

Competency 3: The student will refine dance skills through the study of advanced choreography, movement vocabulary, and stylistic variations inherent in musical theatre dance by:

1. Demonstrating proficiency in executing intricate choreographic sequences with precision, grace, and expressiveness.

Competency 4: The student will collaborate effectively with directors, music directors, choreographers, and fellow performers in the rehearsal and performance process by:

1. Demonstrating leadership, adaptability, and a commitment to artistic excellence.
2. Contributing to the cohesive ensemble dynamics and overall success of musical theatre productions.

Learning Outcomes:

- Communicate effectively using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills.
- Formulate strategies to locate, evaluate, and apply information.
- Demonstrate an appreciation for aesthetics and creative activities.